As a parent or guardian of this child, I realize that my child will be participating in a program that uses Furman University Computer Labs. Computers in these labs have unrestricted Internet access. Telecommunications is an excellent way to explore educational topics, conduct research and communicate with others. However, there may be materials on the Internet that may not have educational value and may not be appropriate for persons under the age of 18. Though the coordinator/teacher/counselor for my child's program will monitor computer use, I recognize it is impossible for them to restrict access to all controversial material and will not hold them or Furman University responsible for materials acquired on the network. Each participant will be fully informed of the computer use rules, and any violation of these regulations may lead to loss of access, charges or damages, and if warranted, law enforcement involvement.

- I give permission for my child to have access to Furman computers.
- I do not give permission for my child to have access to Furman computers.
