What do you get when you pair world class musical performances with outstanding and creative multimedia art? You get the Greenville Symphony Orchestra’s Masterworks Concert performance of “The Russian Sorcerer & His Apprentices” paired with a visual, multimedia display of artwork!

Join fellow OLLI of Furman members and staff at the Greenville Symphony Orchestra’s performance of “The Russian Sorcerer & His Apprentices” on Sunday, January 26th at 3pm in the Peace Center. In this performance, Master composer Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov delivers an array of dazzling orchestral colors with his Capriccio Espagnol, and his students display all they learned: be thrilled by the fiery and exotic fantasies of Stravinsky with his “Firebird Suite”, while Borodin pulls out all the stops with his mighty and wild “Heroic Symphony.”

Following the musical and artistic performance, join fellow OLLI members for a special meal at Nose Dive Gastropub. The GSO’s Maestro, Edvard Tschival and Executive Director, Julie Fish along with a special guest from the Greenville Center for Creative Arts will be giving OLLI participants a special talk about the concert and multimedia display at our dinner at Nose Dive.
