Join our learning community at Furman!
Where Learning Never Retires

Summertime is fun time at OLLI @ Furman! This is a great time to try a new class, whether it’s kayaking, cooking or history. And there’s much more available – truly something for everyone. You may register online beginning Tuesday, May 8, at 8 a.m., or find a summer registration form online or in the OLLI office. All summer courses are $35 unless otherwise indicated, and there is no membership fee required. Most of the one-day events are free! For more information, contact us at 864.294.2998 or olli@furman.edu, or check out our website at www.furman.edu/olli.
Summer Registration Notes

1. All Students must sign Furman's Acknowledgment and General Release form. If you register online, this will be part of the online registration process. If you mail or walk the registration form into the office, you will be asked to sign one at registration.

2. Three ways to register starting MAY 8:
   ONLINE: www.furman.edu/olli
   IN PERSON: At the OLLI office on Furman's campus, located in the Herring Center for Continuing Education.
   BY MAIL: Send the completed registration form with payment to OLLI @ Furman, 3300 Poinsett Highway, Greenville, SC 29613.

3. There will be NO REFUNDS for dropped classes once Summer Session begins on June 5.

4. Summer courses cannot be applied towards course packages purchased during the 2017-2018 academic year.

5. If you are new to OLLI, you will receive a parking decal and name badge at your first class.

Course Descriptions

Tuesday

HFE590a Kayaking is Kool

Tuesdays, 8:30-10:30 a.m., Lake Robinson

Come learn a new summer activity – kayaking! All four sessions will be on Lake Robinson (Greer area). Day one will be a hands-on session covering equipment, safety and stroke techniques with some on-water practice. You will learn new techniques in each of the other three sessions, including practice time on the water to put your new skills to use. Class members should be able to move 50 pounds over 100 yard path. Come join the fun.

Fee: $20 (boat permit for month due at first class).

This course will be co-taught by Rick Minton and Charlie Ennis. Rick is an avid kayaker with over a decade of experience including extensive time teaching, coaching and training. Charlie is a converted former ARC Canoeing instructor and ACA credentialed Kayak Trip Leader.

ACM162 Guitar IV

Tuesdays, 9-10:30 a.m., Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)

This class is a continuation of Guitar III, but new folks are invited. We will learn more picking patterns, strumming patterns, tablature, the function of bar chords, bass licks and more. Materials fee: $4 (due to instructor at first class).

As a professional musician, Jann Howell has been involved in music making for over 56 years. Harriet Mason will assist with this course.

HFE587 Core Fitness for Seniors

Tuesdays, 10 a.m.-noon, Herring Center, Crabtree (HC110)

This fitness class is for anyone with the goal of improving posture, flexibility, balance and core strength. Standing and mat exercises are selected from yoga, pilates and functional training. Resistance bands and dumbbells are provided by OLLI. Just bring your yoga mat and a smile to class.

Ron Bryson, a retiree, keeps himself active with cycling and strength training. He has been a personal trainer and holds a yoga teacher certification. Ron has taught core fitness at OLLI since 2013.

CEO446 It’s a Match!

Tuesdays, 10-11:30 a.m., Herring Center, Computer Lab (HC104)

Save yourself some heartache...literally! Ready to find a mate through an online dating site but not sure where to start or what to say about yourself? Then this four-week course is for you. Join the class as we work together to create and critique profile pros/cons and start you on your way to connecting with the possibilities.

Dea Cox is a retired educator with a passion for technology. She taught technology staff development classes to teachers.
HFE590b Kayaking is Kool
Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., Lake Robinson

ACM117 Great Chamber Music
Tuesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Campbell (HC004)
Chamber music is commonly accepted to be music for a small group where each player has their own separate part, and it is played without a conductor. Most of the great symphonic composers wrote chamber music, and when discussed, Mozart and Beethoven usually come to the forefront. Let us together listen to and discuss the chamber music of these two composers and briefly sample music by Haydn and Schubert.
Ronald Bryson, a retired engineer, has been teaching courses on classical music and opera at OLLI since 2013. A devout music lover since high school, he endeavors to share his knowledge and level of enjoyment with class participants through audio-visual presentations.

RPH981 How to be an Ethical Person in 4 Easy Lessons
Tuesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Piper (HC111)
What makes a person ethical? What is ethics? How do we get some? Do we need external rules to be ethical? Come join the class; it should be fun!
David Gillespie is a published author, a former Presbyterian minister and healthcare chaplain, and is a frequent instructor at OLLI, most always on the intersection of religion, philosophy and ethics.

PAH835 Christmas in June
Tuesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Graham (HC005)
Join the class for handmade Christmas ideas. This class will make a variety of handmade items for gift giving. These may include chocolate holders, tea holders, post it note/calendar organizer, ornaments, night light and an altered journal. Materials fee: $30 (due to instructor at first class).
Kimberly Hellams has been a mixed media artist, instructor and paper crafter for over 20 years. She shares her art on YouTube and Instagram.

PAH849 Deal With It
Tuesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)
In this class we will learn the basics of two card games – Hearts and Eucher. We will discuss the basic rules and strategy, as well as make sure to take plenty of time to play each game in class.
Justin Smith grew up playing cards with his Granny on the mean streets of Walhalla, S.C. He has found it hard to find card players in recent years, so he decided to do something about that. Justin has taught Deal With It twice before at OLLI and is sometimes known to teach finance classes as well.

PHO1623 Lightroom Practical Workshops
Tuesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Computer Lab (HC104)
This class will entail a two-hour practical workshop each week featuring the Adobe Lightroom photographic post processing platform. The instructor will provide guidance on work-process and technique in editing images, where the entire class will work on the same image at a measured and consistent rate. Students are expected to have practical knowledge in the featured software; the class will concentrate in the mastery of the “Develop” module, and the instructor will provide all images for class work. Proficiency level 2 or 3 recommended.
Jeff Sarvis is a retired architect who was originally educated in Puerto Rico. He has worked, traveled and pursued his photography hobby all over the world.

Wednesday

PHO1640 Summer Photography Excursion
Wednesdays, 8 a.m.-noon, Herring Center, Computer Lab (HC104)
The main goal of this class is to keep photographers photographing and at the same time, have them learn or improve their skills. The class will be going to some unique locations: Table Rock, Caesar’s Head, Red Horse Inn, Jones Gap, and many other places. The last class will be a critique of the photos taken. Proficiency level 1, 2 or 3.
Bob Spalding has been teaching photography since the mid 70s through Clemson Extension. He also teaches two Road Scholar workshops each year. Bob’s personal area of focus is nature photography.

PAH861 Jump Start Your Rigid Heddle Weaving
Wednesdays, 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)
Looking for a way to use up your handspun yarn or your knitting yarn stash? Start rigid heddle weaving! This crash course will introduce you to the versatile and easy to use rigid heddle loom. We will learn the speed warping technique of loom prep, and basic techniques for weaves such as leno, waffle and huck. Weave a sampler of structures and then go on to a fashionable scarf or table runner. For beginners or intermediate weavers. Students will be required to provide their own rigid heddle loom and yarn. List of sources provided upon registration.
Alice Schlein weaves and spins in her Greenville studio and has taught workshops in the U.S., Canada, and the U.K. She is the author of several weaving books and blogs at weaverly.typepad.com.
ACM181 Baby Steps Toward Public Speaking

Wednesdays, 10 a.m.-noon, Herring Center, Campbell (HC004)

Many people, if not most, dread the challenge of speaking in public – whether it is a church devotional, a report in a neighborhood meeting, or simply participating in a stimulating discussion. In a comfortable and supportive environment, class members will begin by reading aloud while seated and progress though confidence-building techniques. Through practicing simple steps, you will have the opportunity to let your voice be heard. Minimal homework is required. Success is almost guaranteed.

Judith B. Chandler-Huse has taught at OLLI since its inception. Since retiring from Furman she has been an active community volunteer and artist.

HIS696 The Swerve: How the World Became Modern

Wednesdays, 10 a.m.-noon, Herring Center, Vick Seminar (HC102)

Michael Kilgore is a retired corporate attorney.

ACM177 Watercolor

Wednesdays, 12:30-3:30 p.m., Herring Center, Graham (HC005)

Come join the class and learn about watercolor – all levels invited. The class will concentrate on landscapes – free and easy with no tracing allowed. A supply list will be provided.

Cathryn Rice, artist, is retired after 35 years teaching art in Greenville County schools. She gives workshops and clinics in a variety of art media which include painting, jewelry, color theory and composition.

BEF238 Business Simulation Game

Wednesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Piper (HC111)

This classroom business game uses a computer-based simulation program which is easy to play and serves as a platform for learning the A-B-C’s of business accounting and management. Four manufacturing companies compete in a lively game environment as they manage company purchases, sales, product lines, and marketing – and gain hands-on experience tracking the impact of their decisions on their companies’ financial results, including the income statement, balance sheet and cash flow analysis. The teams use laptops (supplied by instructor) for viewing the progress of their financial data, and miniature tokens representing inventory units and other symbols to enable a visual overview of all the business activity.

James Parke was a corporate financial analyst for Otis Elevator and other multinational companies. He developed the business computer game as a workshop supplement for business management and accounting courses.

PAH820 Beginning Poker

Wednesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)

This is a beginner’s class for people who have never played poker before. Money is not used for betting in this class – it will just be your pride on the line! We will go over the hand rankings, different ways to place bets and betting strategy. We will learn and play a different variation of poker each class, including games you may have heard of, like Texas Hold’em and 7 card draw. This may not get you ready for Las Vegas, but it will be just fine to get you started playing with your OLLI friends.

Dave Knox has enjoyed poker since high school and looks forward to teaching others a game that has so many variations.

PAH842 What Am I To Do With All This Zucchini?

Wednesdays, 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Huff with Lindemann Kitchen (HC105/106)

What am I to do with all this zucchini, strawberries, tomatoes, peppers, corn...from our summer gardens? Join this class as we cook our way through the great abundance of vegetables/fruit given or grown this June. Food cost: $5 per session ($20 due to instructor at first class).

Coordinated by Barbara Wojack with a new assistant instructor each week.

Thursday

HFE510 Bike the Swamp Rabbit Trail

Thursdays, 8:30-10:30 a.m., Swamp Rabbit Trail

This course is for beginning and intermediate riders (no road racers please) of differing experiences. We will ride various distances, beginning... between Greenville and Cleveland, Ohio.

Janet Aguilar rides her bike regularly on the SRT and has ridden on various trails appropriate shoes, mirror, bell and water.

And, of course, we’ll stop mid-ride for participants’ abilities and experience.

and speed will be determined by

of the “White City Devil” serial killer Dr. H.H. Holmes at the 1893 Chicago World’s Fair; and, the still ongoing case of the 1975 brutal death of 15-year-old Martha Moxley by Kennedy Cousin Michael Skakel.

Don Cockrill, retired lawyer, has argued before the Supreme Court. He is a history buff with a special interest and expertise in the Supreme Court, the Constitution and the founding of our Republic.

ACM199 Writers Don’t Take Vacations

Thu., 10 a.m.-noon, Herring Center, Campbell (HC004)

...they enjoy summer writing sprees. This ongoing course welcomes those with writing experience in OLLI or other composition classes. Writers respond to weekly prompts or continue works in progress. Everyone writes; those who choose to do so share their work, which is projected on screen for class and instructor encouragement and suggestions for improvement in a positive environment.

Judith B. Chandler-Huse has taught at OLLI since its inception. Since retiring from Furman, she has been an active community volunteer and artist.

PAH844 DIY Workshop With Grandkids & Home Depot

Thu., 1-3 p.m., Meets offsite

Join in the fun of participating in a hands-on workshop as you and your favorite little person build a new project each week. All kids get to keep their crafts and receive a certificate of achievement, a Workshop Apron, and a commemorative pin. Home Depot experts will provide FREE kits and will be there to guide us along the way. Little people (grandkids, neighbors, protégés, etc.) should be age 3 to 8. Each OLLI member should plan to bring only one child since the adults will take an active role.

Grandma Sally Bornmueller will be the class coordinator. OLLI will partner with Home Depot for the class.

ACM140 Oil Painting With Cheryl

Thu., 1-3 p.m., Herring Center, Graham (HC005)

We will accomplish four paintings in our four-week course, two landscapes and two seascapes (one painting will be done with palette knives). Come paint with us and experience the relaxation and serenity that creating art provides! Materials fee: $20 (due to instructor at first class).

Since childhood, Cheryl McMahan has been interested in creating art – ceramics, decorative tole painting, faux finishing and murals. She was certified as a Wilson Bickford trained teacher in October 2014.
Friday Bonus One-Day Trips & Events

(*Free unless noted)

BTE1188  A Photographer’s Paradise on Roan Mountain
June 8, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.
Visit 6000+ foot Roan Mountain with Seth Harrison. Hike the Appalachian Trail as it runs along the border of Tennessee and North Carolina over high mountain “balds” which are rich in natural and cultural history. We will walk from Carvers Gap along the Trail to rock outcroppings and spectacular views. Natural history, photography, and enjoying the summertime cool mountain breezes are on the itinerary. Distance from Furman: 3 hours. Limit 15

BTE1120  Navigating the Financial Services Confusopoly
June 8, 10 a.m.-noon, HC111
A confusopoly is an industry that is deliberately confusing to make money at your expense. Few investors understand the many ways the banks, insurance companies, independent advisors, and even independent retail brokerage firms make money at your expense. In this workshop, led by Ken Moore, we will discuss how you can: Make Sure You’re Getting Real Financial Advice; Avoid the Investor Return Gap; Integrate Tax Planning Into Investments; Manage Your Risk to Return; and Protect Assets (Without Buying Insurance). Limit 40

BTE1104  Peace Center Tour
June 8, 10 a.m.-noon
Join Kirsten Toledo and Michael Ciaccia of the Peace Center for a walking tour and presentation of the 2018-2019 Broadway season. This tour previews the exciting and ground-breaking performances that will be coming to the Peace Center. Kirsten and Michael will provide the history, vision and mission of the Peace Center from founding through the present by means of historical information, campus details and innovations, and theater folklore. Participants will be walking for the tour, including up and down stairs. Distance from Furman: 5 miles. Limit 30

BTE1169  Falls Park Garden Tour
June 15, 9-10 a.m.
Falls Park and the Liberty Bridge are at the heart of Greenville. Join Greg Burriss, city of Greenville, Falls Park manager, for a walking tour of the park gardens. Falls Park was designed by landscape architect Andrea Mains of Washington, D.C., and features a collection of “garden rooms” offering a spectacular display of seasonal color and artistic garden design. Tour includes approximately 1 ½ miles of walking. The route includes uneven surfaces and steepness as we walk from Main Street around the various parts of the garden, down to the river and back up to the bridge. Distance from Furman: 7 miles. Limit 30

BTE1142  Advanced iPhone/iPad
June 15, 10 a.m.-noon, HC113
In this class you will learn how to use your iPhone or iPad more effectively. This is an interactive class with Bill Vicary, and you will navigate your own phone. Items typically covered include speaker phone and three-way calling; Facetime; calendar; clock; camera; phone scams and blocking calls; emergency and creating an ICE contact; getting started with apps; importance of wi-fi and more. Limit 15

BTE1134  Guided Kayak Tour on Lake Jocassee
June 15, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
Join us for a guided kayak tour of Lake Jocassee with Upstate master naturalist and Jocassee Lake Tours co-owner Brooks Wade. The pace is leisurely as we use our pontoon boat to move from one remote and wild paddling location to another around the lake. There will be lots of waterfalls to see and plenty of time for refreshing swims along the way. Bring lunch to enjoy onboard. Paddle time is three hours. Distance from Furman: one hour. Payment instructions given after registration. Fee: $55 with your kayak, $85 with one provided by Jocassee Lake Tours (plus $3.50 park entry fee). Limit 12

BTE1115  Guided History Walk: Main Street Hendersonville
June 22, 10 a.m.-noon
Join Mary Jo Padgett for a guided history walk on Main Street in Hendersonville, N.C. This tour is a lively 90-minute stroll along Hendersonville’s lovely Main Street. Expect to be charmed and informed about the history and architecture in this historic downtown. Learn about shoot-outs, bordellos, trolley lines, the oldest buildings, “underground Hendersonville,” architects of renown, and more. Distance from Furman: 32 miles. Fee: $10 (due at event). Limit 25

BTE1128  West African Rhythms & Drumming
June 22, 1-3 p.m., HC110
Join Ben Weston, a certified associate instructor with Tam Tam Mandingue Djembe Academy, Winston-Salem, NC for this introductory class to West African Drumming. Ben plays for African and Modern dance classes at SC Governor’s School for the Arts and Humanities. Participants will be introduced to a variety of West African drums and rhythms. Using basic strokes on the drums, students will learn two or three patterns that comprise a traditional rhythm. Fee: $20 (due at event). Limit 40

BTE1158  Centre Stage – Something For Everyone
June 29, 10-11:30 a.m.
Take a tour of Centre Stage Theater. This event consists of an overview of Centre Stage and an in-depth analysis of the current production by cast and/or production staff. Tickets for the performance will be offered at a discount. Distance from Furman: 5 miles. Limit 35

BTE1190  Winston Churchill: The Last Lion
June 29, 10 a.m.–noon, HC111
Jim Maurer will present the life, times and impact of one of the most important political leaders of the 20th century. Throughout a career spanning the Boar War to the Cold War, Queen Victoria to Queen Elizabeth, Mark Twain to JFK - Winston Churchill’s influence has shaped the world we live in today. Although best known as British prime minister, his eloquence and style has made him a continuing icon for world leaders in the 21st century. Limit 35

June 29, 1-3 p.m., HC113
Join Laura Willems, abstract artist and art teacher, to learn a new way to enjoy your photos with this clever 4” x 4” x 4” photo cube. This project requires six 4” x 6” photos (provided by the students), plus six 4” x 6” index cards (provided by instructor). The blank cards will be used to make the base. Instructor will go step by step preparing the photos and index cards. The class will work in teams during the base assembly. Students might want to bring 12 photos and make 2 photo cubes. Limit 30

Celebrating 25 Years of OLLI/FULIR

Music by the Lake Concert Series Thursday, July 19

OLLI @ Furman/FULIR celebrates 25 years just as the Music by the Lake Concert Series celebrates 50 years. In recognition of these momentous occasions, we will celebrate on Thursday, July 19. Save the date and watch for details for a special event as we enjoy Valentine’s Day in July with the Lakeside Concert Band!
