Position: Study Away Peer Ambassador

Salary: $8/hr.

Hours: 2-3 hours per week on average, but could increase on weeks when there are events.

Job Description:

We will be hiring two peer ambassadors to pilot a larger ambassador program for next year. These individuals will assist with pre-departure orientations, focus groups, promotion and outreach efforts, and serve as peer advisors.

Qualifications:

Student must demonstrate ability to work independently and responsibly. He/she must have good communication skills and attention to detail. Student should show interest in global issues and demonstrate ability to communicate well with diverse audiences. Prior Study Away experience is required.

This person will report to Emily Grubbe, the Program Coordinator for the Rinker Center of Study Away and International Education.

To apply, please send an email with your resume attached to emily.grubbe@furman.edu.